EISENSTEIN IN GUANAJUATO

A Film by PETER GREENAWAY

2015 - Drama - Netherlands/Mexico - DCP - 2.35 - 105 min

with Elmer Bäck, Luis Alberti

SYNOPSIS

In 1931, following the success of the film Battleship Potemkin, Soviet filmmaker Sergei Eisenstein travels to the city of Guanajuato, Mexico, to shoot a new film. Freshly rejected by Hollywood, Eisenstein soon falls under Mexico's spell. Chaperoned by his guide Palomino Cañedo, the director opens up to his suppressed fears as he embraces a new world of sensual pleasures and possibilities that will shape the future of his art.

A GERMAN YOUTH

 65th Internationale
Filmfestspiele
Berlin
Panorama

A Film by JEAN-GABRIEL PERIOT

2015 - Documentary - France/Germany - DCP - 1.85 - 93 min

SYNOPSIS

In the late 1960s, the postwar generation, in direct conflict with their fathers, was trying to find its place. From this soon radicalized seething youth emerged in 1970 the Red Army Faction, a German revolutionary terrorist group founded notably by Andreas Baader and Ulrike Meinhof. Based on archive footage, the film aims to question viewers on the significance of this revolutionary movement during its time, as well as its resonance for today's society.
